

CPD - FIRE SAFETY (ENGLAND) REGULATIONS 2022

CPD by EA-RS Group

Delivered by EA-RS Group, this presentation aims to introduce the latest Fire Regulations for England, how this interacts with existing Legislation, and how basic fire prevention measures can potentially reduce fire situations from spreading.

By the end of the seminar, participants will gain a greater understanding of why the new fire legislation has been introduced, and what the latest changes mean. Participants will also understand who the Responsible Person is, what a MORB is, and the use of the Fire Risk Assessment Prioritisation Tool.

To conclude, participants will also gain a greater understanding of the duties placed upon all parties involved with a specific building, to maintain a Golden Thread of information.

Learning Outcomes:

- ➔ A general introduction into the latest Fire Regulations for England.
- ➔ Additional knowledge of how the latest Fire Legislation interacts with existing Fire related Legislation.
- ➔ Information on the key role played by the Regional Fire & Rescue Service (FRS).
- ➔ A greater understanding of how basic fire prevention measures can potentially reduce fire situations from spreading, which could ultimately improve, or save, the lives of residents living in high-rise buildings.

Length: 1 hour (to include a Q&A session)
